

books, papers and private correspondence.

Comanche, Tex.—Dragged by his pet dog into a large pot of boiling water, Geo. Roderick, 3, fatally scalded.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary and Dr. Frederick A. Cook both talked in this city yesterday on discovery of North Pole.

Paris.—Believed that appropriation bill for French exhibit at San Francisco Panama exposition will be passed by chamber of deputies and Senate before adjournment.

Washington.—Problem of dealing with Rep. McDermott, Illinois, and N. A. M. lobby agents will be threshed out Tuesday according to House judiciary committee.

Greeley, Col.—Henry M. Williams, 80, father of 7-pound boy. Child's mother 50 years younger than her husband.

Washington.—Wm. Daniels, New Jersey, confirmed as interstate commerce commissioner.

Peoria, Ill.—Man about 55, thought to be Amos Reed, Chillicothe, Ill., killed under train. Head severed.

Peoria, Ill.—Body of man identified as Wm. H. Martin, Bradford, Ill., found in Illinois river. Had been missing since Feb. 27.

Washington.—Admitting that garbage palls of Washington housewives incriminate them for domestic wastefulness, Mrs. Willard Bigelow of Women's Federation, insists negro servants are responsible.

New York.—J. S. Slater, ex-instructor of French at Columbia University, fell or jumped from window on 4th floor of boarding house. Dead.

Paris.—Mourners at the funeral of a Salernese merchant drank 150 pints of wine he quashed for that purpose by deceased.

—o—o—
TO MABEL

You have the fairest tinted locks
Of any maid for miles around,
And at the dyer's, I suppose,
The key to them is easy found.

ACTOR - DIRECTOR PRODUCES
SOME OF BEST PICTURES

Some of the biggest and best features produced at Universal City, Southern California, have been made by Francis Ford under the Gold Seal brand. He acts leading roles and directs the entire play, collaborating sometimes with his leading woman, Miss Grace Cunard, in writing the scenario.

"Will you stay after the banquet, old chap?"
"What's after the banquet?"
"The usual speeches."
"I will not stay after the banquet."